

Population Health and Aging Rural Research Centre

Volume 1, Summer 2024

Launch of the PHARR Centre

The Launch of the PHARR Centre took place on June 14, 2024. Various stakeholders were present for a workshop to discuss rural aging and dementia alongside researchers, healthcare providers, Indigenous Elders, policymakers, students, and people living with dementia and their care partners.

The event also included planning for the upcoming C2 workshop on Rural Aging and Dementia.

Thematic Analysis Workshop at PHARR Centre

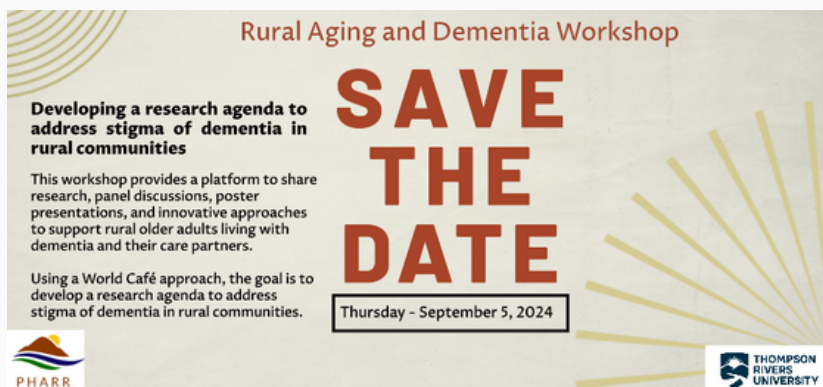

On July 19, 2024, Dr. Bacsu recently taught the Code Crafters Data Analysis Workshop on Thematic Analysis. Organized by All My Relations and TRU Research Services, the event offered hands-on learning with codebook development, coding practice, and thematic analysis including the development of thematic maps. Workshop evaluations highlighted the success of the event, with participants giving a 5-star rating of the event. Since the event was in high demand, another workshop will be held on October 3, 2024.
